

Entomology Association of Southern California*
Spring Meeting March 4, 2014
Los Angeles state and County Arboretum
301 North Baldwin Avenue, Arcadia, Ca

- 9:00am California's invasive slugs, future threats and some novel approaches for their control.
Rory J. McDonnell, UCR department of Entomology
- 10:00am Asian Citrus Psyllid research at California Polytechnic University, Pomona
John Bennett and Angela Vanoni
- 11:00am County Reports
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch on your own
- 1:00pm Natural history and IPM practices for use against an atypical stink bug, the Bagrada bug
Darcy Reed, UCR, Department of Entomology
- 2:00pm GIS Database of Land Gastropods of California - Native and Not David Magney, David Magney Environmental Consulting, Ojai, CA

Annual membership in the EASC is $45 which covers annual registration for four meetings. Meetings are held every three months in December, March, June, and September at the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum. For more information please phone or email Jim Downer, President EASC at 805-645-1458 or ajdowner@ucanr.edu Four hours of continuing education credits applied for PCA, QAL and QAC.